My Impressions of the Navajo

Student Names

What region of the United States is the home of the Navajo?

Describe what the homes of the Navajo look like. What are they called?

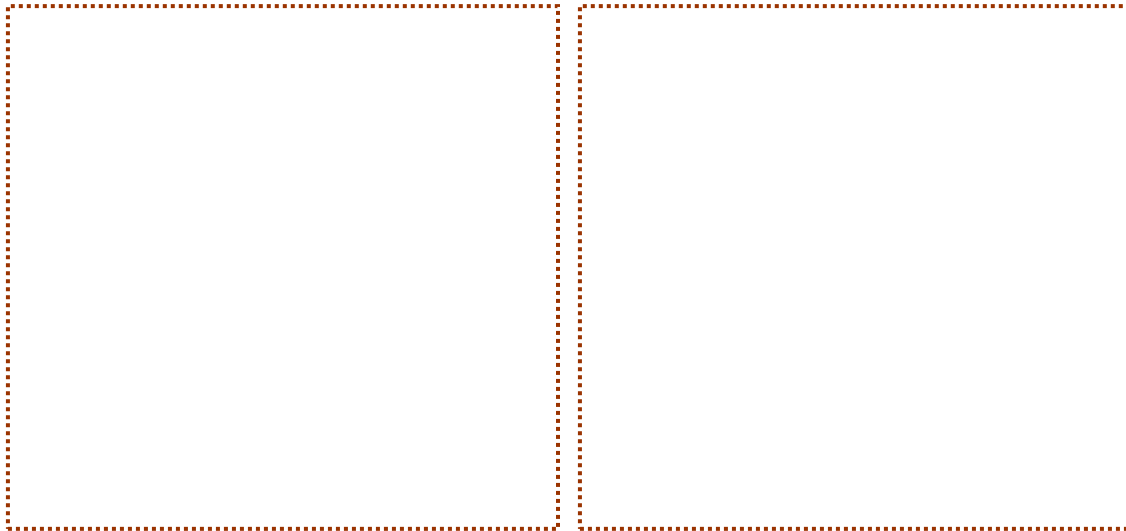

How did the Navajo dress? Draw a picture here.

Write a few sentences explaining the story that you chose to read. What do you think that the story meant?

Animals or creatures in the story:

Draw 2 creatures or characters in your story.

Two dashed-line boxes are provided for drawing. The first box is on the left and the second is on the right, separated by a vertical dashed line. Both boxes are empty and intended for the student to draw two creatures or characters from their story.

Describe three types of Navajo art. Name and describe them here, then sketch an example of each.
